

FINAL EXERCISES FOR HIGH SCHOOL BOYS AND MAIDENS

Will Be End of Commencement Season and
Flowers for Sweet Girl Graduates
Next Thursday.

THE LIST OF JUNE BRIDES IS LONG AND BRILLIANT

Many Weddings of Interest in Richmond and Throughout the State Will Tax the Month of Roses Heavily as a Contributor to Dan Cupid's Altar.

The month of June should be preferred greatly by young people, for it is, above everything else, "commencement month" and holiday-giver. The final exercises, in which the young men and girls of the Richmond High School will take part, will bring commencement season in Richmond, with its flowers and its stage triumphs, to a brilliant close. Great interest is felt in regard to the personality of the valedictorian of the High School graduating class, and in regard to the names of the young ladies and young gentlemen who are the fortunate winners of the scholarships; but as yet these matters are secrets, only known to the individuals themselves and to Mr. James Harwood, Superintendent of the High School, who does not choose to reveal, as yet, these important items on the list of commencement announcements.

The list of June brides is both long and important. Miss Helen Camp's wedding to the Rev. Carl S. Matthews, of South Carolina, will be celebrated Tuesday evening, in the home of her parents, No. 2522 Grove Avenue. Mr. Matthews was a graduate, in the class of 1904, of Union Theological Seminary, and now has a charge at Rapidan, in Orange county. Miss Frances Estelle Rudd, of Belton, Powhatan county, is another Tuesday bride in whom Richmond people are interested. She will be married in the chapel of Oak Grove Academy to Mr. Robert Gregory Porter, also of Powhatan county. Miss Rudd has been the popular principal of Oak Grove Academy for several years. A number of Richmond friends will attend the wedding.

Another important nuptial event of the week is scheduled to take place Thursday next, in Walt's Chapel, at the Seminary, when wedding bells will ring for Miss Zaida English, who will then be married to the Rev. William E. Hill, now in charge of the Presbyterian Church at Hot Springs, Va. MISS BIDGOOD TO MR. WHITEHURST.

An interesting announcement has to do with the engagement of Miss Julia Bidgood to Mr. Robert Valentine Whitehurst, and sets prospective wedding bells ringing for the autumn season.

No prettier June celebration could be imagined than that attendant upon the wedding of Miss Rosa Johnston Tucker to Mr. Sillas Boxley Mason, taking place upon the lawn at "Col Alto," the ancestral Tucker home at Lexington, Va., on yesterday. Many Richmond friends remembered to send good wishes to the young bride, who has such a host of connections here, as elsewhere in Virginia.

Miss Frances Gordon Warwick, a debutante of the past winter, was a bridesmaid at the wedding, on Wednesday last, of Miss Frances Page Cauthorn and Mr. Henry King Burgwyn, of Jackson, N. C., taking place in St. John's Church, Tappahannock, Va. A lovely reception in the home of Mr. B. B. Brockenbrough followed the ceremony.

Miss May Belvin's marriage to Mr. Charles Kruse, of New York, took place in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Belvin, of No. 1006 West Grace Street, on Wednesday evening last. The bride and groom will spend some months abroad before finding themselves at home in New York.

Temple Beth Abahab witnessed a brilliant wedding on Wednesday evening, when Miss Etta Augusta Greentree became the bride of Mr. Manuel Clarence Verwey, of Albia, Iowa. The bridal party and many friends of the bride and groom were afterwards entertained at a reception in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Greentree.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gordon, whose wedding was a society event of May 31st, sailed from New York on Wednesday last by the Baltic, of the White Star Line, for England.

On Tuesday last the wedding of Miss Mary Lynde Pool to Mr. William O. Farinholt, of Richmond, took place in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Pool, of No. 900 Bahnbridge Street, Manchester. A delightful reception was tendered the bridal party by Mr. and Mrs. Pool.

Other weddings of interest included that of Miss Bessie Woodbridge Webster to Mr. Henry Charles Schmidt, celebrated Tuesday evening in Broad-Street Methodist Church, and that of Miss Mary Genevieve Payne to Dr. Hugh Tucker Chelf, taking place at Culpeper, Va.

The Colonial Dames held their June meeting last afternoon in the rooms of the Virginia Historical Society, and the general meeting of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities will be held Tuesday next in the rooms of the Virginia Historical Society.

The Richmond Chapter of the U. S. D. C. will hold its final meeting until the autumn on Wednesday next in Lee Camp Hall.

The Albemarle county and University of Virginia summer homes are fast being filled by Richmond owners and their friends.

The Garden of Dream.

On Monday evening the pupils of Miss Davis's School gave a beautiful presentation of "The Garden of Dream" in the Valley of Sleep, an adaptation arranged by Miss Marie Leahy, with Tennyson's "Dream of Fair Women" as a basic idea. The spacious stage, where the "Valley of Sleep and the Garden of Dream" was supposed to lie, was draped of pale green and a profusion of flowers that made a harmonious background for the visions of loveliness that dawned upon the sight of the fair dreamer.

These "visions" were brought on the stage by the dream fairies, who unveiled them to the dreamer. When their message to her had been delivered, they were seated by the fairies on the stage, and each one added to the beauty of the tableau that was witnessed with such pleasure by the large crowd present, composed of the patrons of the school and its friends among the Richmond public. The entire effect was one of the greatest charm, produced by the refinement and elevating influence of the dramatic and scenic environment.

Those taking part were: The Dreamer—Miss Sarah Lindsay Powers, Dream

Lucy Beverage; Lady Athena—Washington, Miss Bessie McCall; Attendants—Misses Mary Powers, Helen Martin, Charles Henry, Pinckney Powers and Annie Duke Walker. The Girl of the U. S. A., Miss Julia Huff; flag bearers, Masters Marshall Jenkins and Harold Heilmeier.

Closing Exercises.

The closing exercises of Miss Davis's School took place at the rooms of the school building, No. 333 Floyd Avenue, on the evening of June 8th. The Rev. Dr. William E. Evans delivered a most pleasing address and gave out the honors to the pupils in his usual happy manner. Afterwards a piano recital was given by the pupils of Miss Nannie Davis, who has charge of the musical department of the school.

All the performers acquitted themselves splendidly, showing marked talent and careful training and study. The evening attracted their appreciation with liberal applause for each number.

Those taking part in the recital were Misses Lindsay Powers, Cella Morton, Forest Hudson, May Breeden, Lois Hudson, Cecil Hudson and Master Pinckney Powers.

Each number was given with a clearness of touch and quality in technique that reflected great credit, both on pupils and teacher, and rendered the evening a memorable success in the history of the school.

Announcement.

Mrs. George Langhorne Bidgood announces the engagement of her daughter, Julia, to Mr. Robert Valentine Whitehurst, elder son of Mr. W. J. Whitehurst, of this city. The wedding will take place in the early autumn.

Miss Easley Engaged.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Holt Easley, of Houston, Va., announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth, to Mr. William Carrington Lancaster, of New York. The wedding will take place in September.

Miss Easley belongs to a prominent Houston, Virginia, family, and is a most attractive young lady. Mr. Lancaster also belongs to an old Virginia family, and the announcement is one of decided interest.

Peek—Fee.

Invitations have been received in Richmond from Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen Peck, for the marriage of their place, Katherine Dimmitt Peck, to Mr. William Hall Peck, Artillery Corps, United States Army. The ceremony will be performed Wednesday afternoon, June 20th, in the Presbyterian Church, at New Richmond, Ohio.

Lieutenant Peck's home is near Hampton, Va. He has many friends in Richmond and in his native section of the State, and his wedding announcement will be noted with much interest. The ceremony will be followed by a reception to be given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Davis, at New Richmond, Ohio.

Mason—Tucker.

An event of almost equal importance in Richmond and Lexington, Va., was the wedding at 7 o'clock Saturday evening, June 8th, of Miss Rosa Johnston Tucker to Mr. Sillas Boxley Mason, of Frankfort, Kentucky.

The bride is the daughter of Hon. Henry St. George Tucker, and granddaughter of the late Hon. John Randolph Tucker. She is also the great-granddaughter of the famous Confederate General Albert Sidney Johnston. The groom is a graduate of Washington and Lee University; is a grandson of the late Claiborne Mason, a prominent railroad man in Virginia, and a son of the late H. P. Mason, of Mrs. H. P. Mason, of Frankfort, Ky.

The ceremony was performed on the lawn at "Col Alto," the Tucker home in Lexington, the luxuriance of bloom, verdure and foliage making an exquisite setting for the grouping of the bridal party. Decorations were in June roses. A beautiful and appropriate musical programme was rendered by the Virginia Military Institute band.

The only attendants were six little flower girls, Miss Laura Powell Tucker, Miss Henrietta Erection Tucker, Miss Laura Tucker Pendleton, Miss Virginia Mason, Miss Rosa Duncan Sharpe and Miss Nancy Pendleton. These little maidens were in white and had baskets of roses, with which they strewed the approach to the altar. The Rev. Dallas Tucker, of Bedford City, officiated.

The bride was given away by her father, the Hon. Henry St. George Tucker. She wore a lovely gown of white tulle and old point lace, with ancestral pearls, and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

The wedding reception was held at "Col Alto" for the bridal party, the family and a few relatives, the number being limited on account of the recent death of Mr. Mason's father. Among those present were Mrs. John Randolph Tucker, of Winchester; Mrs. John B. Payne, Miss Nancy Mason of Frankfort, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mason, of Hampton; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sharpe, of Wilkesbarre, Penn.; Mr. John Randolph Tucker, of Richmond; Mrs. John Lee Logan, of New York; Mrs. John Carmichael, of Baltimore; Misses August Conrad and Ray McGuire, of Winchester; Misses Letty, Virginia May, and

Notable Wedding.

A wedding in which the union of two old and aristocratic Virginia families was cemented was celebrated at "Buena Vista," the colonial home of Captain and Mrs. Mortimer Rogers, on the evening of June 8th, when their daughter, Virginia Mortimer, was married to Dr. Philip Williams Boyd, of Winchester, Va., the Rev. Dr. W. H. Milton, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, assisted by the Rev. J. William Boyd, officiating.

After an elegant reception following the ceremony, the bride and groom left for Roger's Rock, Lake George, where they will be given a house party by Mr. and Mrs. David L. Williams. Mr. Williams is the owner and editor of the "Iron Age," from Lake George, Dr. and Mrs. Boyd will extend their trip to Canada. They will reside in Winchester, Va., where the groom is successfully practicing medicine.

Among the guests from a distance at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. David L. Williams, of New York; Mrs. W. W. Gwathmey and Miss Margaret Old, of Norfolk; Mr. Taylor Rogers, of Southwest Virginia, and Mr. Hamilton Rogers, of Clifton Forge.

Richmonders Present.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eugene Stacy attended the wedding in Lynchburg Wednesday evening last of Miss Florence Watkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Putnam Watkins, to Mr. William Graham Scott, of Newport News.

The wedding was a brilliant and fashionable one. The bride, who is a graduate of the Woman's College in Lynchburg, spent several years following her graduation in European travel, and is a granddaughter of Colonel and Mrs. James Watts. The groom is connected with the Newport News Shipyards and is a son of William H. Scott, of "Scottland," Amelia county. His grandfather was Dr. George Chaffin Scott, a prominent physician of Amelia and Richmond, and his great-grandfather was Dr. Roger Scott, a surgeon in the Revolutionary War. Mr. Scott has large family connections in Richmond, Norfolk and Newport News. He is socially very popular and is a resident member of the Pocahontas Club, of Newport News.

Hirsh—Reid.

The wedding of Miss Ellen Hughson Reid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Reid, of Montclair, New Jersey, to Mr. Allen M. Kirsh, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Kirsh, who were former Richmond residents, was celebrated on the afternoon of June 8th, at 4:30 o'clock, in the home of the bride's parents, the Rev. Amory H. Bradford, of the First Congregational Church, Montclair, officiating.

The bride's only attendant was Miss Florine L. Kirsh, sister of the groom. Mr. Kirsh chose as his best man Mr. Coleman Meriwether, of Louisville, Ky., and the ushers were Mr. James J. Pollard, of Richmond, and Mr. Fred Gould Harris, of Cleveland. Only relatives and intimate friends witnessed the ceremony, after which a large reception was held.

Mr. Kirsh is a graduate of Yale University in the class of 1901.

Worsham—Hechler.

The wedding of Miss Ruby Hechler to Mr. Charles E. Worsham was celebrated at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening, June 12th, in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Hechler, the Rev. R. M. Maxey officiating.

The bride wore a traveling suit of blue taffeta, with hat and gloves to match. Miss Hattie M. Hechler, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She was carried in white chiffon over taffeta and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas. The bride's flowers were white roses. The house was canvased with white, the decorations were in marguerites and palms. The groom was attended by Mr. T. J. Bagby, as best man.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Worsham left for an extended Northern tour. They will be at home to friends at No. 11 South Third Street, after July first.

Delaney—Turner.

One of the earliest June weddings, and one which, while characterized by much simplicity, was distinguished for its elegance of detail, was that of Miss Josephine Louise Delaney, eldest daughter of Mr. Chester Alexander Delaney, to Mr. Allan Pendleton Turner, of New York. The ceremony took place on the even-
